

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

-v.-

ROMAN STORM,

Defendant.

23 Cr. 430 (KPF)

PROTECTIVE ORDER
WITH RESPECT TO CERTAIN DISCOVERY

FAILLA, D.J.:

This matter came before the Court on the Government's motion ("Government Motion"), exhibits, and the declarations of various Government officials, which were filed ex parte, in camera, and through the Classified Information Security Officer on April 4, 2024 (collectively, the "Government Submission").

The Government Submission sought a protective order, pursuant to Section 4 of the Classified Information Procedures Act ("CIPA") and Rule 16(d)(1) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, regarding disclosure of certain information. After ex parte, in camera consideration of the Government Submission, this Court finds:

1. That the Government Submission contains and describes classified information that requires protection against unauthorized disclosure. That information is described with particularity in the Government Submission.
2. The head of the departments that have control of the classified information described in the Government Submission, after actual personal consideration, have lodged the state secrets privilege with respect to that classified information.

3. Disclosure of the "Classified Materials"—as that term is defined on pages 5-6 of the Government Motion—to the defense or the public could reasonably be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

4. The Classified Materials are not discoverable under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and its progeny, or Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. In addition, the Classified Materials are not helpful to the defense, that is, useful to counter the Government's case or bolster a defense, as required under United States v. Aref, 533 F.3d 72, 78 (2d Cir. 2008).

Accordingly, it is:

ORDERED that the Government Motion is granted, and the Classified Materials, as defined in the Government Motion and described herein, need not be disclosed to the defense; and it is further ORDERED that the Government Submission is hereby sealed, and shall remain preserved in the custody of the Classified Information Security Officer, in accordance with established court security procedures, until further order of this Court.

SO ORDERED in Chambers this 13 day of September, 2024.

---

THE HONORABLE KATHERINE POLK FAILLA
United States District Judge
Southern District of New York